Cathy Brophy's Profile

Travels from: Lake Norman, NC, US

Cathy Brophy is the president of Warren Publishing, Inc, a full service book publishing company.

Authors and musicians from all over the United States and Canada have come to Cathy for guidance while they write their 'book, songs or films.'

With over 20 years of publishing experience, Cathy is an award-winning publisher and singer/songwriter who has written six children's books with William Morrow in NYC and four music CD's. She has helped hundreds of people 'find their voice' and realize their dreams.

Her unique visualization process helps individuals through the process, from project inception to successful completion. Her company works with marketing firms to place authors on National television shows and National Talk Radio programs, most recently, The Dr. Drew Show and The Barbara Walters Special.

She is passionate about finding each person's creative self and helping individuals bring that creativity to fruition, in the form of books, music and film.

She and her husband, Thomas, live in Huntersville, where they enjoy their four children, five grandchildren and boating on Lake Norman, NC.
