Mark McIntosh's Profile

Travels from: Denver, CO, US

Mark McIntosh is a Missouri native - The Show Me State – He has discovered in a lifetime of learning and leadership via athletics, television, radio, business and relationships that life's a fascinating roller coaster with many dips along the way. In an encouraging, thought-provoking and entertaining way via speaking, writing and consulting, he encourages others - despite the challenges - to play like champions in the game of life: home, work and elsewhere.

His speaking, writing and consulting - you could call it coaching - are in honor of the great mentors he's had throughout life. He taps into their wisdom and shares some of his thoughts in encouraging others to achieve healthy and productive success. He believes the venues change but, usually, the strategies are the same.

At the end of the day, when you boil it down to the root, he tries, through the Daily Dose, weekly Pep Talk, books and presentations, to encourage others to never grow weary of doing good in ways that honor them, nurture those dependent upon them and add value to the communities they serve.

Some refer to him as the "Comeback Coach." His children, he has a wonderful son and daughter now 21 and 14, call him "weird." A masterful storyteller, the Missouri native's philosophy inspires others to become superior to their former selves - at home, work and community.

Once an athlete, always an athlete, right? Mark teams up with co-host Jimmy Doogan for three hours of sports talk each weekday afternoon from 3-6PM on Mile High Sports Radio, AM1510 and FM93.7. It's entertaining, informative and intelligent - well, maybe that's a stretch - sports talk where the focus is on the listener, not the hosts. "Drive Time with Mac and Doog: Ain't about us, it's about YOU!" continues to grow its listening audience.

Specialties: Speaker, writer and coach. Media awareness, small business development, adversity and visionary consultant.

Keynote:

"Transforming Life's Lemons - the heck with lemonade - into Margaritas"

Mark's signature keynote and ongoing life story encourages audience members to learn, laugh and linger on a journey inspiring them to embrace simple, but not easy, strategies to effectively deal with life's changes, challenges and adversities.

Testimonial:

"You did a terrific job. A very animated presentation that was both engaging and thought provoking. We've worked with many speakers in the past, but you easily fall in to that very lonely and lofty 'best of the best' category. Tons of great complements afterwards."
