Turner "T.U.R.N.I.P" Stimpson's Profile

Travels from: Statesville, NC, US

Trust–Understanding–Respect–Nurtured–Inner–Peace

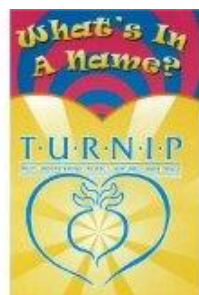

As a third generation hosiery manufacturer of a family business, Turner Stimpson's life made a 180 degree turn through the eyes of a dementia patient, Miss Mourne. By the slip of her tongue, he suddenly became 'Turnip' and realized he was making a difference as he cared for others. It was pure, simple and needed to be shared. It was the precious gift of God's love.

Today, Turner Stimpson is nationally recognized as a writer, speaker and family consultant on the care of patients with Alzheimer's disease. His unique approach to treating these patients with respect and love - /The Turnip Approach /- has earned him numerous awards.

Over 20 years of spreading encouragement, joy and hope to these special people, as well as their families, Turner has become a desired keynote speaker at many conferences and care facilities, where he is able to share his passion for helping families learn to interact with their amazing loved ones. Beyond the fear of Alzheimer's, Turner gifts his everlasting message...his message is love. Loving /The Turnip Way/ is truly for everyone!

Specialties: Family Consultant; Church Groups; Nursing Homes; Organizations

Topics Include:

Where Have All the Angels Gone? Bridging research and care is truly a challenge. There are questions that need to be asked and answered before the bridge is ready for traffic. Bridges are made to connect people with places and things in a timely manner. If one is late getting to the bridge, especially a drawbridge, an individual may experience not only detainment in his journey, but frustration and fatigue. Research for a cure for Alzheimer's continues to march on across that bridge, while society, seemingly can't make up its mind where they stand on the subject of Alzheimer's..."
