Willie Jolley's Profile

Travels from: Washington, DC, US

Willie Jolley is a world-class award-winning speaker, best-selling author and multimedia personality.

In the January 2010 issue of Success Magazine, Willie Jolley was hailed as the 'Comeback King.' He earned this title for successfully helping Ford Motors avert the need to accept bail out dollars! Ford hired Willie to speak to all their employees, plus helped them design an internal communications campaign to reinforce the Ford "Bold Moves" messages.

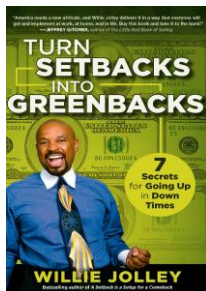

He was named "One of the Outstanding Five Speakers in the World" by Toastmasters International. Less than 50 speakers worldwide hold that honor! Former winners include Nelson Mandela, Christopher Reeve, Margaret Thatcher and Colin Powell!

The two top designations that the National Speakers Association bestows on the best of the best speakers have been awarded to Willie Jolley. The first, CPAE/ Speaker Hall of Fame Award, is a life-time honor, for speaking excellence and professionalism. In winning this award, Willie joins luminaries like Ronald Reagan, Zig Ziglar, and Les Brown!

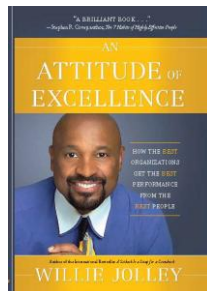

The other designation is the Certified Speaking Profession (CSP). This is for individuals who have made their mark in the speaking arena with presentation excellence to varied industries and audiences.

Willie Jolley now hosts a daily CBS television affiliated segment (WUSA-9), 'Live Better With Willie Jolley,' sponsored by McDonald's. This feature provides inspiration and specific strategies for living a better life one day at a time!

Willie Jolley is the author of several international best-selling books including "It Only Takes a Minute to Change Your Life!" and "A Setback Is A Setup For A Comeback." They have been translated into many languages.
