

Empowering and Motivating You to Succeed!

Devin C. Hughes' Profile

Travels from: San Diego, CA

Devin C. Hughes known to audiences worldwide as the Chief Inspiration Officer, is a highly sought after award winning speaker, author and happiness muse who speaks to a variety of groups, organizations, and teams who have a desire to break down enterprise-wide cultural barriers, improve organizational performance and enhance communication through greater self-awareness and understanding of one another. He draws on a variety of ideas, research and the tenets of Positive Psychology to inspire and facilitate personal and organizational change. He is best known for his expertise in the science of happiness, organizational/cultural change and leadership development. He is an avid storyteller who has the unique ability to connect with audiences by inspiring them to be the change they wish to see right now.

Devin has spent years motivating and inspiring audiences to stretch their comfort zones and take command of their lives. After starting his career in corporate America, he is now seen as the go-to motivational keynote speaker for corporate and association markets that want their people to improve their morale, teamwork, and communication skills and ultimately achieve more results.

Devin's unique background and success story truly sets him apart from most professional speakers and guest lecturers. It's for this very reason that people come away from his keynotes entertained, inspired and motivated – but more importantly, with the practical, applicable, actionable tactics and strategies for acting on their inspiration and motivation. By the end of his talks, seminars and workshops, participants are equipped to deal with the day-to-day challenges they face.

In addition to being a popular keynote speaker, Devin is also the author of "Contrast: A Biracial Man's Journey to Desegregate His Past" and the comic, "Self-Talk" which is intended for kids who are struggling to fit-in, alienated from their peers and disconnected from friends and family. It highlights the enormous power of positive self-talk.

Devin is a graduate of Colgate University with a degree in Sociology/Anthropology; he lives in San Diego, CA with his wife and four daughters.

Target Audience: Corporations, Universities, Pharmaceutical, Health, Financial, Conventions

Specialties: Anti-Stress (Happiness), College/University Speaker, Diversity, Inspirational, Motivational, Overcoming Adversity

Keynote and Workshop Topics Include:

The Diversity Advantage

In today's multicultural environment, it is still not uncommon for workplaces to be divided down racial or cultural lines. Devin addresses the topics of racism (direct or indirect) and intolerance head on, helping leadership teams break down barriers to productivity and achieve greater success as a result of increased understanding. The training we provide works towards breaking down barriers and making communication easier through greater self-awareness and understanding of cultural issues that are often daunting and uncomfortable for professionals who are trying to engage diverse communities
