Sabirul Islam's Profile

Travels from: London, UK

Sabirul Islam a UK Teen-Trepreneur, global motivational speaker and author and founder of the bestselling book: "The World at Your Feet" and 'Teen-Trepreneur.'

With a vision to want to achieve success as a young entrepreneur, Sabirul Islam, an ordinary East London teenager who grew up witnessing crime and violence within his community, made the jump to setting up a web design business at the age of 14. Having run the web design company for a period of 2 years and generating a healthy income whilst still in school, Sabirul felt it was best to leave web designing as it became "very common."

Sabirul quickly discovered the benefits of risk-taking at a young age and, with a passion for networking and big organizational support. Sabirul took a step forward to become a junior trader at the age of 16, having been given the opportunity by Merrill Lynch to learn how to trade whilst in New York.

With a wealth of knowledge and experience as a young entrepreneur and investor, Sabirul had the vision and desire to inspire young people across the nation which led him to write his first book called "The World at Your Feet" aged just 17. The launch of his first book presented the opportunity for Sabirul to become a motivational speaker, sharing his message at 379 events in nine months and selling over 42,500 copies of his book.

Sabirul not only wants to inspire young people, but to educate them about the world of entrepreneurship and taking risks. This motivated him at the age of 18, to invest £20,000 of his own money into developing and launching his own business board game called "Teen-Trepreneur." The game itself has sold in 14 countries worldwide and is now used as part of the BTEC Business Qualification in over 400 schools across the UK. Launched alongside the board game was Sabirul's second book, "The World at Your Feet: Three strikes to a Successful Entrepreneurial Life". Sabirul set up his second business named after his book 'The World at Your Feet' with a vision to develop an empire that aims to inspire, educate and provide ordinary young people the opportunity to become extraordinary entrepreneurs. All of which is achieved by many small enterprises and programs that deliver inspiration, empowerment and entrepreneurial initiatives.

Sabirul Islam, an ordinary East London Youth who is still only 20, is rapidly developing an empire that inspires, educates and provides the opportunity for an ordinary individual to become an "extraordinary entrepreneur."

Sabirul has also launched his speaking platform called 'Teen-Speakers' which has on board 25 UK and 25 International Speakers. With the vision to bring together the 'World Best' young influential speakers aged 16-25, all on to a single platform to inspire and empower a global audience.

Specialties: Inspiring and nurturing young people to become successful entrepreneurs, Motivational Speaking.

"Entrepreneurship - Self Publishing & Youth Inspiration"

Sabirul's belief in the three key elements that open a person's door to success, is a powerful message which he illustrates, involving, 'Inspiration – Knowledge – Opportunity.' Sabirul explains how he turned his life around from being a victim of negative behavior to a positive role model for those wanting to change. This involves a follow up with Sabirul's book:

"The World At Your Feet - Three Strikes to a Successful Entrepreneurial Life", which guides the audience to take simple steps forward and break the shell that has been stopping them from obtaining success. Sabirul's creation of the "Teen-Trepreneur" Board Game provides a fun and easy way of understanding the business world, which is a part of the follow up after his talk, giving the audience practical ways to achieve the three key elements.

Testimonial:

"I have watched Sabirul in action a number of times both in front of large audiences, and behind the scenes.

The guy has real charisma and power - although he may appear to be the quiet, retiring type, people naturally gravitate towards him. The work I have seen Sabirul do with Teenagers is testament to this charm. They loved him! They found him massively inspirational, and even the ones that weren't interested in the entrepreneurial life took plenty from their time with Sabirul.

I would wholeheartedly recommend Sabirul Islam for any speaking engagement where quiet, non-hyped motivation is required. I would also suggest reading his book."
