Testimonial:

“Frank King delivered the best event luncheon keynote that we’ve ever had. Being able to laugh about the hard issues makes it easier for people to discuss them. Ditto takes away the shame and encourages conversations that can be life-saving.”

“Frank, After seeing your presentation, it dawned on me that your content should be taught in medical school, because most physicians do not take the time to follow up on subtle “warning signs” given verbally by patients. I would think that your keynote should be required curriculum for all medical students. It is really powerful in so many ways.”
