A Talent Agency

NATHAN TABOR

Entrepreneur, Business Strategist, Teacher and Speaker

He is NOT a coaching franchise owner. He is NOT a product of the “one stop shop” business coaching certification programs. He did NOT wake up one day and decide to become a business “expert.”

He is a businessman with the tools to help you because he has walked in your shoes—he has made payroll when it seemed impossible, worked 90 hour weeks, carried the unmatched weight of business ownership, and ultimately discovered how to crush the stress and enjoy his companies and his life.

He has successfully founded and operated over two dozen businesses since 1999, grossing over $150 million in sales. His experience spans the areas of commercial real estate acquisition and redevelopment, automobile sales, direct product sales, web-based marketing, and strategic partnership facilitation.

He has had amazing successes and epic failures, but he has learned more from his failures than his successes. After years of struggling to keep all of the balls in the air, he learned that there are laws and processes that, when implemented, will deliver the desired results.

He is committed to enjoying a true balance between working hard and enjoying life. His wife is his best friend and they have a young daughter. His hobbies include shelling deserted islands, building furniture, raising toys for ChristmasToyDrive.com, reaching inner city kids with The Story Bible and cultivating his personal relationship with Jesus Christ.

Nathan has been a featured guest on Fox News, Fox and Friends, Laura Ingraham, Glenn Beck, C-Span and many other radio and TV programs.

He earned his Bachelor's degree in Psychology from St. Andrew's Presbyterian College, Master's degree in Public Policy from Regent University, and after he realized his passion for developing the leadership in others, he obtained his certification in executive coaching, teaching and speaking from John Maxwell.
